

Timothy Keogh

---

A commercially focussed Finance Director adept at leading teams in complex and diverse organisations. An effective finance business partner experienced at board level with successes in delivering cost reductions, reporting & analysis improvements, leading & managing change and developing key business relationships.

Areas of Expertise

Cost Reductions | Insightful Information | Executive Level Experience | Business Partnering | Business Planning | Budgeting | Risk & Opportunity Management | Transformation | Leading Multi-disciplinary Teams

---

Career Summary

Transport for London (Various Roles)

Aug 2008 – Present

Transport for London (TfL) is an integrated transport organisation responsible for the management and operation of London's public transport system. TfL is a large, complex organisation funded through multiple income streams, primarily fares, managing 24m passenger journeys each day across the transport network.

Finance Director Crossrail

Oct 2020 – Present

Crossrail is the biggest railway infrastructure project in Europe and is one of the largest single investments undertaken in the UK.

- Leadership of the Finance and IT teams
- Provision of financial control, business partnering, reporting and governance, delivering financial rigor and insight for effective decision making
- Provision of end to end IT services providing user support, service management and application development

Finance Director

Sept 2018 – Oct 2020

Major Projects Directorate

The TfL Major Projects Directorate (MPD) is a capital delivery division, delivering complex infrastructure and systems programmes for TfL including new tunneling, station upgrades, delivery of new walk through air-conditioned trains and new digital signaling systems upgrades.

- Leadership of the finance function providing integrated business partnering and financial control
  - Business Partner to the Managing Director
  - Translating financial strategic objectives into business deliverables; contributing to effective decision-making driving value and financial control.
-

Head of Finance & Financial Controller

Sept 2016 – Aug 2018

Major Projects Directorate

- Lead the periodic review cycle providing financial control, financial planning and advice
- Leadership of the Business Plan and Budget cycle
- A key member of the Leadership Team and Programme Boards driving delivery of the scorecard

Timothy Keogh (page 2)

---

Head of Operational Finance

Sept 2014 – Aug 2016

London Underground

London Underground Operations is a £2bn business employing 18,000 staff managing a customer focused Tube network. The Operations business includes front line operations, asset maintenance and asset development, manufacturing and overhead functions.

- Lead a team of 40 accountants providing a customer focused finance business partnering service
  - Partner to Chief Operating Officer and Operational Directors providing decision support, robust business plans and forecasts ensuring the most effective use of resources driving value for money
  - A key member of the Operations Leadership team providing advice and support to business functions on financial and strategic issues
  - Integral member of Transformation Programme Boards providing challenge on financial performance and strategic input into performance improvement
-

Various Roles:

Sept 2008 – Aug 2014

Head of Finance (Bakerloo, Central & Victoria Lines)

Senior Business Accounting Manager – Track Partnership (London Underground & Balfour Beatty)

Senior Management Accountant

---

Finance the Future Graduate Program

2004 – 2008

London Borough of Havering

- London Treasurers Graduate Finance Scheme
- Rotations through Corporate Finance, Business Partnering and promoted to Group Accountant

Laing O'Rourke (Various Roles)

2001 – 2003

---

Professional Qualifications & Training

Senior Manager Development Programme

2015

Cass Business School

CCAB Qualified

Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA)

2007

---

Education

De Montfort University, Leicester

1999 – 2002

BSc (Honours) Management Science with Computing – FIRST CLASS

- Faculty Award: Best Computing Major/Minor/Joint Student 2002.

Brentwood County High School

A-Levels Mathematics, Physics, Sociology & General Studies

1999

GCSEs 9 Passes A-C Grades

1997